

ART ON LOAN PROGRAM

The District’s Art on Loan Program (“Program”) is designed to afford an Artist the opportunity to display one or more works of art (“Art”) in a public forum that promotes the Artist’s work and enhances the aesthetic quality of the park or other public place where the Art is being displayed.

The acceptance of Art into the Program and the placing of the Art on display is at the discretion of the District. Artist understands and agrees that District’s acceptance of Art for the Program is done by the District upon the express condition that District does not accept any responsibility to protect the Art other than to follow the District’s routine and customary security protocols and procedures, if any, applicable to the park or other public place where the Art is displayed.

Upon the expiration of the term (“Loan Term”) for which the Art is loaned to the District, it is the Artist’s responsibility to retrieve and take possession of the Art in accordance with the District’s process for returning Art to the Artist.

Notwithstanding any other provisions contained herein to the contrary, with respect to Art that is not retrieved by the Artist upon the expiration of the Loan Term, the District has no responsibility whatsoever and assumes no liability for any damage done to, including the complete destruction of the Art for any reason, including but not limited to, damage or destruction arising from fire, theft, or vandalism. The District’s acceptance of the Art does not constitute or create a bailment and none is intended. The District expressly reserves the right at any time after sixty (60) days following the expiration of the Loan Term, to dispose of the Art in any manner, including but not limited to, by sale or gift to any person or charity or by destruction.
